CONGRATULATIONS

Perhaps the most coveted award given by PCEA is the "Rudolph J. Barns Award" for the National Estimator of the Year. This award is given annually to the person who has gone above & beyond at the National level to contribute to the success of PCEA. This year's recipient is our own Randall Williams!

Randall is the General Manager of Midstate Contractors, Inc. in Hickory. He has been a member of the Catawba Valley Chapter for 13 years and has served in numerous officer and committee chair positions, both at the local chapter and national levels, including the National President in 2010-2011. Randall currently serves on the PCEA National Board of Directors as the National Director for the Catawba Valley Chapter.

Please join us in congratulating Randall for receiving this well-deserved award!!

Scholarships

Kenneth N. Houston Memorial Scholarship

Professional Construction Estimators Association of America (P.C.E.A.) has announced the winners of this year's Kenneth N. Houston Memorial Scholarships.

Jamen Beck of Hickory will receive an award of $1,000. He is a senior at St. Stephen High School and will be studying Civil Engineering at NC State University. He is the son of Tammy Beck.

John Joseph Battiston, III of Hickory will receive an award of $1,000. He is a senior at Hickory Christian Academy and will be studying architecture at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John Battiston, Jr. of Hickory.

Matthew Stephen Benfield of Hickory will receive an award of $1,000. He is studying Civil Engineering at UNC-Charlotte and is the son of Brad and Sharon Benfield of Hickory.

Nicolas Steven Tessener of Hudson is a senior at South Caldwell High School and will be studying civil engineering at NC State University. He is the son of Nicole Harris and will receive an award of $1,000.

PCEA awards scholarships each year to students entering construction-related careers. PCEA membership is made up of construction professionals including general contractors, designers, material suppliers, sub-contractors, and construction financial specialist.

The scholarships are named in memory Kenneth N. Houston who served as chapter president and was active in the association's educational activities. Mr. Houston, who had owned and operated Anderson Sprinkler Company of Hickory, died in 1994.
